

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Request to Apply Transfer Course Towards the International Perspectives Requirement

The Process: The student, offering department, academic advisor, and college student office must complete this form for approval to use a course transferred to Iowa State University to meet the International Perspectives requirement.

Course Evaluation: The Iowa State University department that offers a similar course determines whether a course meets the out-comes of International Perspectives. After appropriate approvals, the Office of the Registrar will add the course to the International Perspectives Approved Transfer Course List.

Other experiences: To request to apply a combination of transfer courses and/or life experiences to the International Perspectives requirement, use the "International Perspectives Course Substitution or Waiver Request" form. (See the Office of the Registrar forms website at www.registrar.iastate.edu/forms).
